

```
/*
* The command that will go to all 3rd party databases that are
* arbitrarily declared in the program if no arguments are given.
* The optional arguments should be the databases that the
* program should only be pulling data from, of the arbitrarily * declared databases. For example, if you only wanted data pulled
* from NASA, then just put that without quotes.
*/
exocat update -"database_name", "database_name2",..

/*
* Pulls new data from 3rd party databases.
*/
exocat pull

/*
* Resolve a conflict from updating; m = mine, t = theirs.
*/
exocat resolve m/t

/*
* Set how often the program updates. #ofHours is the number of hours
* in between each update, and #startingTime is what time during the * day in military time you want it to update. 0 or 0 0 means stop
* automatic updates.
*/
exocat auto #ofHours #startingTime

/*
* No optional arguments tells you which emails will be getting a * report of every time a successful merge occurs. a or add followed by
* a valid email adds the email(s) to the list to get the report. r or
* remove removes the listed email(s).
*/
exocat report -a/add/r/remove [email, email..]
```