

```
/*
* The command that will go to all 3rd party databases that are
* arbitrarily declared in the program if no arguments are given.
* The optional arguments should be the databases that the
* program should only be pulling data from, of the arbitrarily * declared databases. For example, if you only wanted data pulled
* from NASA, then just put that without quotes.
*/
exocat update -"database_name", "database_name2",..

/*
* Lists all conflicts since the last update recorded. -r lists the
* most recent conflict (from the most previous update).
*/
exocat conflicts -r

/*
* Set how often the program updates. #ofHours is the number of hours
* in between each update, and #startingTime is what time during the * day in military time you want it to update.
*/
exocat auto #ofHours #startingTime
```