```
/*
 * The command that will go to all 3rd party databases that are
 * arbitrarily declared in the program if no arguments are given.
 * The optional arguments should be the databases that the * program should only be pulling data from, of the arbitrarily * declared databases. For example, if you only wanted data pulled * from NASA, then just put that without quotes.
 */
exocat update -"database_name", "database_name2",..

/*
 * Looks in the 3rd party databases to see if there are any new planets
 */
exocat check

/*
 * Pulls new data from 3rd party databases.
 */
exocat pull

/*
 * Resolve a conflict from manually updating; m = mine, t = theirs.
 */
exocat resolve m/t

/*
 * Set how often the program updates. #ofHours is the number of hours * in between each update, and #startingTime is what time during the * day in military time you want it to update.
 */
exocat auto #ofHours #startingTime
```